REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

During a year that has been clouded with economic woes and debates over how to fund public education, the schools of Cherokee County have enjoyed continued success in all areas. Our teachers and staff members have worked with students, parents, and the community to help each student be successful.

In the fall of 2008, the Cherokee County School District was proud to learn that Blacksburg High School and Gaffney High School were two of the few high schools in the Upstate to make AYP. Additionally, these schools, along with CTC, were recognized as Palmetto Gold Schools for their outstanding achievement in 2008. In the spring of 2009, the Cherokee County School District awarded 497 diplomas to seniors. Of these seniors, 53% of Blacksburg High students and 84% of Gaffney High students were accepted to the college of their choice for the upcoming fall. The Class of 2009 was awarded approximately $8.6 million dollars in scholarships.

Other district celebrations of success include 40 middle school students being named South Carolina Junior Scholars. Additionally, B.D. Lee was recognized as one of ten Exemplary Writing Schools in South Carolina. Fine Arts were at their best, with student work featured during the District's Arts Expo. Our athletic teams had a great year with 4 all-academic, 3 all-star, 15 all-area, 59 all-region, and 5 all-state recognitions, as well as 13 High School Sport Report awards, and 2 players of the year. Region championships were earned in golf, wrestling, and basketball. There were state championships in wrestling, track, baseball, and softball, with a runner-up in basketball.

Many factors contributed to a successful year: student effort, teacher dedication, parent support, and community help and input. We appreciate the effort, assistance, and support from everyone in making 2009 a very successful school year for the students and staff of the Cherokee County School District.

Dr. William B. James, Superintendent
